Few cities are as gleefully chaotic as Tbilisi, the capital of the Black Sea nation of Georgia. Originally a Silk Road capital, this sprawling city of 1.1 million is as eclectic as it is dynamic. The Old Town — also called Kala — with its traditional pastel houses and wooden balconies, flows seamlessly into the Art Nouveau neighborhood of Sololaki. You can spend the day exploring the museums and theaters housed in the impressive neoclassical architecture. The city's architectural eclecticism and wealth of cultural offerings make it well worth a visit.

Day 1; Sunday: Tel Aviv, Arrive to Tbilisi

Depart TLV on El Al flight to Tbilisi. After transfer and check-in to our hotel, we will enjoy a light lunch followed by a chance to rest and freshen up. We complete the evening after dinner with a Meet & Greet so we can get to know one another.

Day 2; Monday TBILISI CITY TOUR

Tbilisi is a city of contrasts: hospitable and full of joy, a meeting place for Eastern and Western civilizations. Discover every corner of this wonderful city with us.

The tour begins in the old part of Tbilisi, we will discover the city by walking and visiting the following places: - Tbilisi sulfur baths area - Bridge of Love - Waterfall - Meidan & Gorgasali Monument.

Tbilisi Narikala Fortress, which will be reached by cable car. We will continue to Mother of Georgia - Rike Park - Bridge of Peace - Shardeni Street.

Our tour ends by discovering the last sites of this unique city from our bus; Freedom Square, Rustaveli Avenue and Hero Square.

Day 3; Tuesday: TBILISI- KAZBEGI –TBILISI

Today we are going to enjoy a Jeep Tour; en route, we will drive by bus to Kazbegi town center with some brief stops on the way. Our first stop will be the Ananuri Castle and Jinvali Reservoir. Ananuri is a perfect place for landscape photography, and there are stunning views of the fortress and the Reservoir. The fortress remained in use until the beginning of the 19th century. In 2007, the complex was on the tentative list for inclusion into the UNESCO World Heritage Site program.

The next stop will be the Friendship Monument of the Georgian and Russian people surrounded by wonderful views. This Friendship Monument was built in 1983 to celebrate the bicentennial of the Treaty of Georgievsk and the ongoing friendship between Soviet Georgia and Soviet Russia. Located on the Georgian Military Highway, this monument is a large round stone arch and concrete structure overlooking the Devil's Valley in the Caucasus Mountains.

Finally, after arriving at Kazbegi, we will alight the jeeps and drive to the location of Gergeti Trinity Church. The church's location is the right bank of the Chkheri River under the Kazbegi Mountain, 2170 meters above sea level. You will be impressed with the stunning view of Mount Kazbegi, which is 5047 meters above sea level.

Day 4; Wednesday: Tour # 3 TBILISI –MTSKHETA-TBILISI

Today we will drive to Mtskheta town- one of the oldest cities of Georgia and its former capital, which is located to the north of Tbilisi. On our way, we will stop at Jvari Monastery, which stands on the rocky mountain, on the top of the confluence of the Mtkvari and the Aragvi rivers, overlooking the town Mtskheta, where the first settlement of Georgian Jews took place.

Day 5; Thursday: TBILISI-GORI-UPLISTSIKHE –TBILISI

In the morning we will depart to Gori to visit Joseph Stalin Museum. The Museum consists of three blocks - museum, house, and railway carriage of Stalin. The Joseph Stalin Museum is dedicated to the life of Joseph Stalin, the leader of the Soviet Union, who was born in Gori. The Museum retains its Soviet-era characteristics. After visiting Stalin’s museum, we will continue driving to Uplistsikhe Cave, which is an antique rock-hewn town in eastern Georgia. It was built on a left bank of the Mtkvari River, contains multiple structures dating from the Early Iron Age to the Late Middle Ages, and is notable for the unique mixture of various rock-cut cultures from Anatolia and Iran coexistence of pagan and Christian architecture.

Day 6; Friday: Free day for Shopping and Preparation for Shabbat

Free time today on your own to visit the shopping malls and local markets. Tbilisi offers malls in the city with very attractive prices for all shopping. Enjoy a relaxing day at the hotel Spa, Pool, Sauna, Massage treatments or a walk or bike ride around the city. Prepare for Shabbat.

Day 7: Relaxing Shabbat

After Tefillot, meals and a rest, in the late evening we will visit the local Synagogue and engage with the Jewish community in Tbilisi. After Maariv & Havdala we will enjoy a Melave Malka Dinner

Georgian Jews (Georgian: ქართველი ებრაელები, romanized: kartveli ebraelebi) are a community of Jews who migrated to Georgia during the Babylonian captivity in the 6th century BCE. It is one of the oldest communities in that land. Prior to Georgia's annexation by the Russian Empire in 1801, the 2,600-year history of the Georgian Jews was marked by an almost total absence of antisemitism and a visible assimilation in the Georgian language and culture. The Georgian Jews were considered ethnically and culturally distinct from neighboring Mountain Jews. They were also traditionally a highly separate group from the Ashkenazi Jews in Georgia, who arrived following the Russian annexation of Georgia. As a result of a major emigration wave in the 1990s, the vast majority of Georgian Jews now live in Israel, with the world's largest community living in the city of Ashdod.
